

TOURS AVAILABLE:

FULL DAYS: Malaga

_____ This cosmopolitan city offers a great range of shopping and dining opportunities.

The Cathedral, Castle and Picasso museum give a real sense of history and tradition – Spanish style.

There's something for everyone.

_____ Price: €80

_____ Benalmadena:

Visit the very flash Marina (voted Europe's No.1 for two consecutive years)

There are numerous bars, restaurants and shops to enjoy. The kids will love Seaworld which is set in the heart of the Marina.

Boat trips are also available or just stroll around admiring the very expensive yachts!

A great relaxing day.

Price: €80

Torremolinos:

Enjoy a fun- filled day at the Costa del Sols biggest and best water- park or visit the crocs at their own special park

Price: €80

Nerja:

Have a great day browsing the unique little gift shops in this lovely town (some say it's reminiscent of the narrow streets of Cornwall). There are horse – drawn carriages available for you to enjoy a laid back view. They are centered around the Balcon de Europa, which is a hub of activity in the summer when there are street performers, ice-cream stands and gift stalls.

Also at the Balcon is a stunning church- numerous weddings are held here and draw many well wishers/ sightseers.

Price: €50

El Torcal: ½ Day (Morning or Afternoon)

Drive through the Spanish countryside to El Torcal Where you'll see spectacular limestone rock formations that date back 25 million years. They are the cumulative effects of rain ,snow, cold and heat. It's also possible to spot eagles which ride the thermal winds here at El Torcal. This is a great place for walking and admiring the fantastic scenery.

Price: €50

Torrox – Mondays only

It's market day in Torrox and things kick off at 10 – 10.30am. There are stalls with gifts, clothes and locally produced fruit, veg, honey and herbs. The market is situated around the long promenade which is home to some great bars/restaurants. Jings the Chinese restaurant offers a great value 'menu del dia' if you fancy a change from Spanish cuisine. Torrox is a great beach for sunbathing/relaxing after lunch.

Price: €50

